

August 2009

SugarHouse Casino Virtual Fair For Construction Opportunities

SugarHouse Casino has begun a $60 million construction project for its new casino in the city of Philadelphia. SugarHouse has also entered into an Economic Opportunity Plan (EOP) with the City of Philadelphia and has formed the SugarHouse EOP Oversight Committee.

The project construction phase will be beginning in September and will generate construction jobs and contractor opportunities. This oversight committee has been tasked to reach out to minority, women, and locally owned business enterprises to ensure that they have been made aware of, and have the opportunity to bid on the various trades associated with the project.

To help bring together prospective contractors to the Construction Manager/General Contractor, The SugarHouse EOP Oversight Committee presents The SugarHouse Casino Virtual Fair.

What is a Virtual Fair?

*The SugarHouse Casino Virtual Fair involves you navigating the websites of SugarHouse Casino and its partner(s) for construction opportunities.

Who is involved?

Keating Building Corporation is the Construction Manager/General Contractor and will be releasing bid packages for this construction project.

What are the available construction trades in this project?

(See attached Bid Package List)¹

How to get involved?

Potential contractors should visit www.keatingweb.com to find Keating's prequalification application and/or see the attached in order to receive bid package information as it becomes available. When applying for prequalification, please identify the EOP Oversight Committee as your source of notification of this project.

Special note to Tier One subcontractors - You will be required to have submitted an application to the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board in connection with any of the project bids.

Special note to Tier Two subcontractors – If you are interested in subcontracting with a Tier One subcontractor, please email Terry McKenna at tmckenna@keatingnet.com to retrieve Tier One contractor information within your trade.**

Where to find more information?

For information regarding these opportunities, please visit <http://www.sugarhousecasino.com/vendor/index.php> or contact your trade organization.

¹This information is subject to change and/or will be updated periodically.